Such is politics in Papua Niugini

GREED has its limits. It is limited by its subject matter in the sense that it may be exhausted. Upon exhaustion greed may be transformed to lust and where lust remains unfulfilled, it may turn into aggression. Thus, greed, lust and aggression are phases of one and the same phenomenon, namely, a perversion of the senses.

Take a look at the National Alliance Party and the jockeys we spoke about in this column last week.

One would think that in the normal course of events, the determining factor should be the interest of the party as a whole and how it should fare in the coming national elections. But the big question is: Does this consideration matter in the latest scramble for the leading jockey's job?

It is said that the strength of the whole lies in the capacity of the individual units that make up the whole. Thus, where the units are weak and feeble, it will show in the capacity of the whole to stand up against pressure.

So that leads us to ask: What is the capacity of the National Alliance to stand up against pressure from both within and without?

In the last attempt from the Opposition to topple Sir Michael, the National Alliance Party crumbled like Humpty Dumpty who fell off the Wall. The Opposition did nothing ingenious to get the NA falling into their trap. The aftermath of that scuffle was that Dr Puka Temu, the Papuan Leader of NA lost his high position of the Deputy Prime Minister and, in shame, resigned as a member of the National Alliance. And the other significant loss was the demise of Belden Nemah, the then Minister for Forests. And then others in the government back benches moved away into oblivion. And people like Timothy Bonga, Arnold Amet and Ano Pala kept a straight face like nothing happened except that in Namah's Book, they are a bunch of low caste midget hypos.

That attack by the Opposition was the test to determine if NA would stand its ground as the main force in government. From the way the party conducted itself, it is now obvious that the NA is a party of conglomerate of diverse interests, as diverse as the individual members that make up the party. This leads us to ask: Is there a common ground that has the unifying force to hold the party together?

Unfortunately, our response to the above question is "NIL". There is no common denominator to hold the party together. When faced with an occasion whereby the party should show a sense of solidarity, it does not stand up. The obvious answer is that individual political and personal interests far outweigh the impersonal party interests.

The only reason why the NA exists, and appears to give the impression that it is a solid political organization, is the greed by the individual party members using the party as a stepping stone to further personal, political and economic interests. The governing motto appears to be: "Me first and party behind". Thus, the diverse personalities cannot find common ground to fight off the Opposition chipping away the NA at its core.

At the forefront is Sir Michael Somare, who has used the party as a vehicle to chart his personal advance back to power from the days of the Pangu Party.

The motto then was: "Pangu Save Rot".

And by the time the Chief fled, the motto was: "Pangu Painin Rot".

And now it must be something like, "Pangu Faul Long Rot".

But the rumour now is that with Chris Haiveta on the march back to re-take "Rome" as it were, The Chief was thinking about doing another political somersault to catapult Arthur Somare into mid air to land in Pangu's lap, more like the biblical Moses falling into the Pariah's daughter's arms, to rise to stardom as the next Prime Minister.

Poor, Pangu! It must now feel like a whore who does not get paid for the services rendered. It is as if every customer is doing it on credit. The sneaky old Chief knows that Arthur the calf, mule or pony, whatever you want to call him, does not stand a chance with the current make up of the NA. Ever heard of the saying: "There is no loyalty among thieves"? You must have seen it enacted in adventure movies like "Treasure Island". The only souls poor old Long John Silver had for "company" was his talking parrot and the cabin boy, Jim Hawkins, whilst his long trusted mates turned on him.

You would think that there was enough treasure to go around and last at least 10 servings, but did that matter? No, it is not the quantity that matters where greed and lust may turn into aggression. What matters is the act of "hording" and the sensation derived from that. It is ownership chained with attachment and gratification of the senses associated with that. The opposite virtue is ownership without attachment, but in this world of materialism, the soul quality of detachment runs counter to our life long quest for wealth creation and building of false symbols based on our acquisitions.

Thus, the catch in this life long circus is not the comedian or the acrobat doing his rounds. The farce is in the intensity with which the circus winds itself as we lay bare our very souls in search of that which diminishes upon our reach or grasp. It is rather like that book of knowledge that we search for in our individual lifetimes and when we finally come face to face with it, we open it only to find out that it is an empty book with a life sized mirror in it. We then close it and continue the search as if we have stumbled upon the wrong book.

But getting back to this cat and mouse game is what Chris wants for himself compared to what the Chief wants for Arthur. Whilst Chris wants to tap in on the Chief's personal charm and genius for making mischief for those who support him, Arthur does not care how he gets there, provided that he lands within feet from the position of the Prime Minister.

For Chris, he has nothing to lose. If he lands on his backside on hard or soft soil, he will walk away unscathed like the Opposition did in the Temu fiasco. It is Arthur who may lose, but again, Arthur is taking a gamble which may work out in his favour, with the odds being even at 50/50 but slightly tilting in his favour.

If the above case scenario unfolds, then the NA will be abandoned like an old work horse and all the parasites currently feeding off the animal may be leaping for safety, except that there are no safer grounds within sight.

Patrick Prauitch is now being told openly that he is being groomed by the Momase Block to take the reigns for the region as their favourite jockey.

But is he not limping from the tussle with the devils in the Ombudsman Commission? Yes, he may be limping, but what does that matter? If he can crawl to home base on his backside, that is considered political success in this jurisdiction.

What matters is not how one gets there; what in fact matters is that one gets there either by hook or by crook. And of course, with a straight face!

And that is your politician and his pot-bellied bureaucrats.

Politics in PNG has its rewards, however, temporary, fleeting or delusional. It is all about greed, lust and aggression, characterized by alcohol, pokies and poking.

May God have mercy on us.

Operational Budget

Al I the Provincial Census Coordinators (PCC) have been urged to complete their Workload Formation and Operational Budget estimates and submit them quickly to the National Statistical Office (NSO) before the next important phase of training begins.

Proper training for all levels of workers, from the operational, supervisory and interviewer level is crucial to the success of the census.

The first phase of training will involve Provincial representatives in Port Moresby for about a week starting May 30th.

They will then return to their Provinces and conduct training for census personnel at the LLG level through final phase will be the training of interviewers and supervisors, the front line workers who will be actual point with households and the people.

PCCs have been reminded to "recruit knowledgeable personal" as interviewers to ensure that the Census is completed on time and that the final outcome is of high quality.

Budgets for all the Provincial level training including the two newly created Provinces of Hela and Jiwaka are expected to be submitted by respective PCCs.

They were reminded of this task at two different PCC work-shops, the first in Goroka and the other in Port Moresby, to discuss progress work on the Census.

Deputy Census Director, Mr. Boe Douna re-emphasized the importance of the speedy completion of the Work Load Formation and Operational budgets on radio in the Milne Bay Province on Friday.

"Everything will be budgeted based so any money that will come, will depend on how they (PCCs) have cost their activities," Mr. Douna told listeners of Yumi FM.

Mr. Douna was in Alotau with the chairman of the Census Publicity Committee, Paulias Korni and Head of the Census Media Unit, Peter Maine.

The team went there to be part of a radio Road Show to create more awareness, update the public on the census preparation work and also discuss administrative matters with the Milne Bay Provincial Census Steering Committee (MCSC).

Also speaking on the radio, the Chairman of the PCSC and deputy Provincial Administration, Mr. George Kila, said quick release of operational funds to the Provinces will be a key factor in the success of the Census.

"It's very crucial because of last year's experience where we made commitments without funding and that has placed our people in a situation where they may not have confidence (in the Census this year)," Mr. Kila said.

He added, "My appeal to NSO is to ensure that funding is available to the Census Coordinator so when he moves, he can pay for services rendered."

Mr. Douna assured Milne Bay and many other provinces which he had made similar calls that Finance and Treasury will facilitate this requirement as soon as the Work-Load Formation and Operational Budget proposals are submitted by all the PCCs to NSO.

An earlier assurance of the National Government's support came from the Minister for National Planning and District Development, Mr. Paul Tiensten.

While closing the 2nd PCCs Work-shop in Port Moresby on May 10th, Mr. Tiensten said "the Somare/Abal Government is fully funding this Census and we are committed to ensure this important National Project is conducted successfully."

Mr. Tiensten further informed the PCCs, "The National Government maintains its stance to stand by you as you take up your positions in the forefront of the census in your respective locations. All Provincial Administrations must provide you all the support you need."

The National Government has appropriated K66 million for the 2011 National Population and Housing Census. It will be conducted from the 11th – 17th of July.

I nogat moa tingting

PLANTI taim, i gat kain kain kros i save kamap long ol manmeri long pablik long kain wok bilong pablik sevan.

Ol i save tok olsem ol pablik sevan i nogat tingting moa long givim sevis long pablik. Dispela hap wok, em ol i pasim pinis wantaim sampela sait mani bilong ol yet.

Dispela kain tingting i mas pinis, sapos yumi laikim kantri bilong yumi i wok gut.

Yumi ken lukim pasin bilong mekim wok, tasol wok ol i mekim, oltaim i save gat liklik hap hait tingting i stap long traum mekim sait mani bilong ol.

Sapos pablik i no laik sanap long longpela lain long kisim paspot, o visa, i gat ol 'save' lain i stap long harapim wantu tasol.

Sapos man i laikim laisens, tasol i no laik go skul stret long kisim, i gat ol 'save' lain i stap long opis i save givim laisens long liklik toea tasol.

Dispela kain pasin bilong kisim 'komisin', em i kirap long we tru?

Husat tru dispela namba wan pablik sevan i tingting long givim sevis olsem?

Gavman i mekim bikpela pairap long dispela kain pasin, na ol i kamapim kain kain ol bikpela kibung, na wok skul o trening, long skulim ol lain pablik sevan, long abrusim dispela kain pasin. Tasol em i stap yet.

Wankain tasol olsem ol solwara abus olsem trausel i stap, na ol birua bilong en we i wok long pinisim ol.

I gat ol lain konsavesen i save wok strong long banism ol trausel long ol mani kilim, o kisim kiau bilong ol long salim.

Astingting long banism ol trausel, em long larim ol i karim inap kiau long kamapim moa trausel.

Tasol laik bilong ol manmeri long kaikai mit na kiau bilong trausel i stap pinis, olsem na ol man i wok holim pasim na kilim ol yet. Na namba bilong ol i wok long go daun tru.

Sapos yumi ol manmeri yet i tok nogat long baim kiau na mit bilong trausel, ating bai tingting bilong ol man long painim na kilim, bai go daun isi isi.

Yumi ken mekim wankain long ol sevis we yumi pablik i mas kisim long ol gavman opis.

Sapos yumi wok yusim yet dispela kain 'wantok sistem' bilong kisim sevis, bai em i no inap pinis.

Pasin bilong laikim samting, em i namba wan birua na banis yumi wan wan i mas daunim, bai tingting i ken klia long bihainim stretpela rot na i no bilong 'givim liklik toea' long kisim sevis.
