KIKSTATIM DEI WANTAIM

The political manipulation continues...

Sabina's Corner

WE SAID in this column last week, that the events then unfolding were mere ripples of behind the scene conduct by members of the kitchen cabinet and in particular, one whom we called "the phantom". Thus, we highlighted that people, events and information were being manipulated by certain people to gain an edge in politics and that way, secure their political standing in order to protect their economic interests.

Thus, in summation, we said Sam Abal and Don Polye were singled out and placed in the boxing arena in order to eliminate themselves from the scene. Meanwhile, Pruaitch and O'Neill were split up because of the fear that O'Neill might assist Pruaitch to assemble a Highlands block to back him up for the top job. And then, we said that with Pruaitch and Arthur before the Leadership Tribunal, there were more surprises to unfold.

Now that both have been suspended from office, chaos reigns in the political arena.

In the frenzy, the Acting PM almost worked himself out of the top job when he failed to reserve a ministry for himself. And now Abal can be thankful to the Ombudsman Commission for the indirect assistance he got when Pruaitch lost the Finance Ministry, which Abal quickly seized for himself.

Would Abal have returned to the Finance Ministry to O'Neill? No way! This would have never crossed his mind. This is an NA ministry. NA needs the Finance Ministry to finance itself back to power after the coming national elections. It cannot be given away to the dogs.

After the Supreme Court threw out Sir Michael's various court proceedings to block the Leadership Tribunal conducting its hearing, and after Arthur and Pruaitch were suspended from office, suddenly we are told that the Chief is back on his feet and walking again.

However, we were told last week by the Somare family that Sir Michael was in intensive care and he was unable even to hold a pen to sign a resignation letter, hence his family had us believe that they were doing us a favour by throwing in the towel.

We repeat our statement in last week's column, that the Somare family withheld information on the medical condition of the Chief for well over 10 weeks, allowing the political scenery to be redesigned and rearranged, and then thinking that everything was then in order, made us believe last week that the Chief might not even make it back alive.

And now all of a sudden, the Chief is out and about, walking soon after Pruaitch and Arthur are removed from the political scene and there is a move to certify as to the Chief's medical fitness to return to power. We feel that somebody is surely manipulating the release of information on the Chief's health for one reason or another. This is what we said in this column and we repeat it here.

Anyway, the Supreme Court blasted the Chief and his legal eagles for abuse of legal process in employing delaying tactics to stop the Tribunal convening to hear the leadership code charges against the Chief. And now that those charges are moot, the Supreme Court gets to dismiss all the applications made by the Chief's Lawyers to prevent the Tribunal which has already sat and heard those charges. Well, the judiciary owes it to itself for allowing those delaying tactics to go unnoticed. We agree that it is now a little too late to cry "wolf" after the wolf has come and gone.

But the good news is that in the future the national and the supreme courts will not be dishing out any more injunctions to prevent the machinery of justice from its routine operations. The members of the Prosecution Section of the Police Department would be very happy to hear that there would be no more injunctions to prevent the police from arresting and bringing criminals before the committal courts at Waigani. Thus, all those national court injunctions now on foot and preventing the police from acting on certain criminal charges, should now be quashed and police be allowed to do their job.

On the question of reinstatement of civil servants by the national court, we now have a change of heart by the judiciary. Here we have Kirriwon J, sitting as a supreme court judge saying that reinstatement shall not be granted readily for a civil service job where the employing authority may be held at ransom, as it were.

We said it in this column a few weeks ago, that where one is dealing with an employment contract in a wrongful dismissal case, reinstatement is not an option open to the court. It is the employer who has the right to hire and fire his employees. However, where the employer is in breach for one reason or another, then in that event, damages or compensation would be the appropriate remedy the courts should order, and not reinstatement. And we agree with Kirriwon that reinstatement is out of the question in employment contracts.

And back to the political scene, what will now happen in the NA camp with Arthur and Pruaitch out of the picture? Is it not rather strange that on Tuesday this week the national broke the news on its front page that the Chief is out and about walking around now? And also on the same front page, we are told that Arthur and Pruaitch are now under suspension.

We say that this is a calculated move by the kitchen cabinet to maintain their grip on power and influence behind the scene. In other words, it is telling us that Arthur and Pruaitch may be out, but the giant Chief is walking back into the political arena. In effect it is a signal to Abal and his likes that Arthur and Pruaitch cannot be discarded so easily. They will still play a role, given that the Chief is now coming back.

But what about the public announcement by the Somare family that they are retiring the Chief from politics. And all of a sudden after Arthur and Pruaitch get thrown out, the Chief is alive and well and walking? This is no mere coincidence. We say that it is a calculated move by the kitchen cabinet by way of manipulation of information on the health of the Chief and this has been happening ever since the Chief went to Singapore on treatment. And we say that the Somare family is in the middle of this manipulation of information on the medical status or condition of the Chief.

And now that the Chief is said to have "walked" out of the intensive care unit we are yet to hear that the Chief will return to his Office to complete his term. The excuse for this change of heart will be that this so called "Mirigin Crappy Accord" by self-appointed Chiefs of the Sepik Tribes demand that the Chief return to politics to complete his term.

In our view, the most obvious reason for the information that the Chief is all of a sudden well, is the exit by Arthur and Pruaitch. It is their last attempt to hang on to power like a mountain climber who falls and is seen dangling on a branch of a shrub growing over the edge of a descending cliff face. But here again, we are made to look like stooges in a comedy show. But time will show that the bigger fools are the comedians themselves and not the spectators.

Now that the Chief is out of the intensive care unit, will the Somare family hold another press conference to tell us whether they still stand by their decision to retire the Chief from politics or have they changed their mind?

And getting back to other issues, what has gone wrong with the police force fronting up at private homes without a warrant to disturb the family of a person who has been charged for breaking and entering his own office and stealing unknown number of goods. The biggest question on everyone's mind now must be this, that why is it that the police are hell-bent on persecuting Mr Lelang, who is on a minor criminal charge? And by the same token, how come the same policemen are now telling us that Yasause, who is on a wilful murder charge, cannot be located either at Bomana or the Boroko Police Station?

If Wagambie and his policemen are so keen to hassle Lelang, why? And is it true that in Mr Lelang's absence the Acting Secretary to the Department donated the police some motor vehicles? Is this the reason why the police are now out in force terrorizing Lelang and his family? If Mr Lelang is correct in his assertion that the break and enter and stealing charges are a 'frame-up' to keep him out of office, then that allegation must be investigated. And Lelang is correct in his statement that some K1.2 billion have been stolen by government ministers and civil servants, then that allegation must also be investigated. And on his part, Mr Lelang must tell his Lawyer to start screaming "abuse of legal process" if the statement by Lelang is correct that Mesulam's letter is evidence of this conspiracy to keep him out of office so that he does not disclose the names of the people who stole all this money. And finally, why are the police providing the Acting Secretary to the Department of Planning security for 24 hours a day, seven days a week and so forth? Who is going to murder this woman and why would anybody want to do that?

We must be mindful that the allegations made by Lelang are serious. Mr Lelang is telling us that certain ministers and other named public servants and executive officers of these public servants have all stolen huge sums of money. The only way we can confirm these allegations is by the government taking swift action to investigate the truth, or otherwise, of these statements by Lelang.

And mind you, Lelang was the Departmental Head of Planning and Rural Development. Therefore, where he is coming from is within the thick of things, so there must be some truth in what he is saying. Thus, Sam Abal must now proceed to appoint a commission of enquiry to look into the allegations by Lelang, because we are talking about a vast sum of money, namely, K1.2 billion, being stolen by ministers and public servants and their executive officers. And it now appears that these people are protected by the police.

With all this information about stealing of K1.2 billion having hit the press, there is no uproar by the community about the matter. In particular there is no statement by the Trade Unions and their representatives. All of a sudden Papua New Guinea has gone quiet.

If you have watched the Opposition's press conference on the news, you would have noticed Honorable Maxtone-Graham urging Papua New Guineans to wake up and play a part in what is now happening in the country.

Good on you Jamie. Keep the fire burning. You are one of very few honest politicians in this country. We salute you!

We wish to repeat the same sentiments here.

We ask: With this information of stealing by government ministers and public servants, why are we so quiet about it? Why is it that nobody has made any suggestions on how the government should enquire into these allegations?

On our part here, we call upon Sam Abal, the Acting Prime Minister, to appoint a Commission of Inquiry to look into the workings of the Department of Planning and Rural Development, and the Department of Finance, and how this massive amount of K1.2 billion has gone missing over a three-month period that Lelang was out of the Department.

LETTER TO HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

Dear Sir/Madam,

The National Statistical Office is currently conducting the fourth National Population & Housing Census in all the provinces. The 2011 Census enumeration or counting will take place from the 11th – 17th July 2011.

The aim for the 2011 Census is to count every man, woman, boy, girl, babies and even the aged in Papua New Guinea using a census form for every household. Everyone including people from other countries living in PNG at the time of the census will be counted.

The need for updated census information cannot be overemphasized as it supports planning, administration and policy development activities of the government, businesses and other users. The use of census information for other purposes such as electoral rolls, taxation purposes, obtaining land titles for customary land, any religious beliefs, or giving information to banks or organization or harming people in any way is outside of the objective of the census. Census information is confidential and is used strictly for statistical purposes only.

The National Statistical Office appeals to all people in Papua New Guinea in their respective census units or villages to make time available during the census week to provide to census workers the necessary information required to complete the census form.

Mr. Joseph Aka
