THE UNCERTAINTY AHEAD

One of the central aspect of the Hindu beliefs is the theory that life revolves around a cycle whereby you start with creation, then you move to maintenance of order that ends finally in destruction. Thus, if you look at what is now happening in PNG, it makes you wonder if the Hindu belief is in fact the way life has been ordained to maintain itself and for itself with the notion that everything else within the circle must follow suit because we are dealing with an universal order of things.

Thus, we started with Independence and with that we set in order a scheme of things under an umbrella called, "the rule of law". Then we started to build up a statehood under the name, "The Independent State of Papua New Guinea". And we named the inhabitant, "a citizen" of the Independent State of Papua New Guinea. With that we copied the economic system of the West as a model from which to base our national economy and copied everything else including their bad habit of indulging in alcohol non stop from Friday to Sunday.

Seen from that point of view, the period commencing 1975 to about 1980 was a period of nation building, for lack of a better term. We played by the rule of law for at least 5 years and for the next 5 years to 1985, we were experimenting with bribery and corruption brought in from South East Asia by Chinese and Philippines alike. We started to ask for and received small amounts for lunch, smoke and betelnut. Then from about 1985 to 1990, we started to improve on our modus operandi and the politician took the lead by dining, wining and dancing with the foreign businessman who came into the country looking for easy money.

The order of the day was characterized by a pot belied businessman in his safari suit carrying a leather briefcase stuffed with K50 notes to pay his way around bureaucracy and red tape. Then come the year 2000, the game of bribery and corruption reached its peak and since then the entire institution of State and the machinery of government can no longer move without any bribery and corruption money changing hands.

If you survey the political arena, you will note that the people who were at the

"bingo" with their lives.

And it is little wonder that the common man does not care if O'Neill or Namah should commit blunders like breaking all the laws in a Statute Book to punish little bank called BSP, we the people lost our trust and confidence in you. It is rumoured that you are now trying to do the same thing with Air Niugini where you are considering a possible sale to APNG, an airline noted for its very bad safety record in such a short time of operation in PNG.

WE ask: Is this why you have placed your lieutenant Garth McIlwain as the Chairman of Air Niugini and also appointed Greg Shepherd, your legal eagle to mastermind a possible merger like the shady deal involving PNGBC and BSP? And why is the Ombudsman Commission sitting on its ass and not doing anything about people like Morauta who can sack a professional company executive only to be replaced by his personal staff member? Is this not against the leadership code?

And when will the present government start to obey the law and that way try to bring things under control so that this country can allow the people and the institutions in the country to bring back normalcy into the country.

The way things are now, there is far too much uncertainty with the effect that the public servants are all too scared for their jobs and the businessman cannot tell whom he is talking to in case he gets visited in the middle of the night by a group of thugs calling themselves policemen seeking to arrest him for some "cooked up" crime.

Is this the way to run a country? Over to you Peter O'Neill!

helm at Independence and are still at the forefront now are the people who were responsible for the way PNG had "evolved" to where it is now. Take Sir Michael for instance. He was in and out of power for close to 40 years and so was Sir Julius and yet in their political career they never thought of giving the people free health and free education.

The nation had to wait for close to 40 years for someone to think, "boy, we forgot to offer the people free health and education". Parliament had to go out of its way to arrest power off Somare and his mob to offer the people something in return for having sat and watched the boys play those whom they blame for a lot of things that went wrong during the Somare regime's reign.

Thus, one can now witness people being deported for political reasons, Heads of statutory corporations being fired and replaced by political cronies such as in the case of Telikom where Sir Mekere sacks a company executive only to be replaced by one of his ministerial staff. Sir Mekere, you were at one time considered a senior statesman. Unfortunately, you are no longer considered one at this very moment.

After you did a Judas Deal with the sale of PNGBC to a
